

Minute Movies

NOW SHOWING
THE GREAT FILM
TRAGEDY
A COUNT'S MISTAKE

COUNT DEBES LA BOOE
PARTAKES OF
A FARE WELL
DRINK BEFORE LEAVING FOR AMERICA

TIRED AND THIRSTY
THE COUNT
PERCEIVES A WELCOME AND FAMILIAR
LOOKING SPOT

LETTERS OF THE CZARINA TO THE CZAR IN WAR TIME

"Hang Those Generals!" Is Her Comment On Inefficiency of Leaders Of Russian Armies.

Tells Czar to Disregard Age and Rank and Bring Forward Young, Energetic Men to Direct Operations.

By ISAAC DON LEVINE.

FROM DARGUTIN the czarina, transmitted to the emperor "an apple and a flower," which was part of the gift the mock left to his friends before his departure for his Siberian home for Easter. Later the czarina returns to her husband a telegram which he had received from Rasputin, but sent to her and Asia for interpretation. The telegram was a petition to punish Khvorostov, who as minister of the interior plotted Rasputin's death. Instead of punishing Khvorostov's assistant, the czarina writes: "Hang those generals!" she exclaims. "Why are they so weak and good for nothing. I am weary with them. Clear them out then and bring forward young, energetic men. During a war one chooses the capable men and does not go by the age and rank. One cannot suffer men's lives to be shed in vain by blundering generals."

Gifts from Rasputin

"Tzarekopsa Solo, March 14, 1916. My own sweet treasure. I send you an apple and flower from our friend, who all had fruit as a goodly gift. He left this evening, quietly, saying better times are coming. He told her he told Rasputin would be good as minister of war on account of his great popularity. In that he is certainly right, but you will do what you think best.

"Oh, yes, yet another thing he said to tell you that the Metropolitan told him the ground wants to present you a wish of theirs that seven metropolitans should be in Russia. Vladimir very much for it, but our friend begs you not to agree, as it is certainly not the moment and we can't even find scarcely three decent ones fit to occupy such a place. How utterly absurd of them. Nikon is still here, too bad.

"One says Uncle Khvorostov hopes to whitewash his nephew though all are against him and wants to drag Beletsky in, who really seems quite innocent concerning the conspiracy and wishes him no longer to be senator, but then you must be just and have Khvorostov's court rank taken away. I deeply regret it was left him, as in the duma they say because he did not suit him he can if he wishes to get rid of Gregory do the same with any of us who may displease him. I don't like Beletsky, but it would be very unkind if he suffered more than Khvorostov. He has forfeited his rank through his imprudence, but that's enough. The other tried to investigate a murder.

"How the they shoot again with explosive bullets. But God will punish them.

"Dear Lovelord, goodbye and God bless you. I cover you, sweet Nicky, with very tender kisses.

"Over your very own."

(Nikon was the Petrograd metropolitan, the enemy of Rasputin, who was sent away to give place to him. The mock's ally, E. B. Beletsky was director of the police department and also of Khvorostov, the minister of the interior.)

"Hang Those Generals"

"Tzarekopsa Solo, March 14, 1916. 'Lovely, I send you here a letter I got from Rasputin, who was sent through, and if you agree, wire to me 'all right' and I shall have it wired on to him. It is a strange chap, but certainly devoted and energetic, and as he so humbly writes, must be used. I wish you would shut up that rotten war industries committee, as they prepare simply antidynamic questions for their meeting.

"One says Dmitri is still scolding about in town, such a pity. He won't become a better husband for that.

"And you see the sultan received the field marshal's staff from William, such mockery.

"Am glad you have settled all about Polivanov. God grant Shvaller may be the right man in the right place. In any case a blessing you are rid of him.

"I shall read through Gregory's telegram with Asia when she returns from town and then explain it to you.

"Hang those generals, why are they so weak and good for nothing. I am weary with them.

"Warmest, tenderest kisses. Hugs mine, from your very own old wif."

(The only Rasputin's whose record is available is Michael A. Rasputin, secretary of the Russian Science in Athens and chamberlain of the imperial court.)

Rasputin's Grudge

"Tzarekopsa Solo, March 14, 1916. My own Lovebird:

"I can imagine how comforted you feel have at last settled the question of the minister of war. God bless your choice with success and may he prove himself worthy of your trust.

"Is it true that things are going very bad with Sukhomlinov? I've heard as though he would have to be shot, but I don't know where he got the news. Certainly he had his great faults, but his successor is yet a greater traitor to my mind.

I return to you Gregory's telegram. He means Beletsky, because he does not find just that he, who has scarcely been to blame, should so severely suffer and the other get off better who committed the greatest sin.

"One says Khvorostov is at Moscow talking away and saying he was sent off because he wished to get rid of the German spies near our friend—no low Ab, indeed, he ought to be judged or his embroidered coat be taken from him. He said you ought to punish those that talk in the duma. Asia continues getting anonymous letters. Her father and poor Zhuk, too, telling him not to go with her otherwise he will die a violent death with Asia. She speaks to Spiridovitch and he

When any of these symptoms appear on any part of your body, you should take prompt steps to rid the blood of the germs which cause them. And the one remedy which has no equal as a blood cleanser is S. S. S., the purely vegetable blood remedy which has been on the market for more than fifty years. S. S. S. is sold by druggists everywhere.

Do not expect to be cured of any form of skin disease by the use of lotions, salves, ointments or other local treatment, as such remedies cannot possibly reach the source of the trouble, which is the blood.

The recognized blood purifier and tonic is S. S. S. which has been used for more than fifty years, and is today, more popular than ever.

Begin taking S. S. S. today, and write a complete history of your case to our Chief Medical Adviser, who will give you special instructions without charge. Write at once to Swift Specific Co., 185 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Those who rely upon local treatment such as ointments, salves, lotions, washes, etc., which are applied to the surface of the skin, will never be free from agonizing skin diseases, because they are going about the treatment just backwards. They are treating the results of the disorder, and not the disease itself. They are attempting to boil water by applying the heat in the wrong place.

There is a Way to Get Rid of the Torturous Suffering.

You cannot boil water by applying the heat to the top of the vessel. You may possibly, after so long a time, succeed in making the water lukewarm, but it will never get hot enough to boil.

Disorders which originate in the blood can be reached only through the blood, and no amount of local treatment applied to the surface can be expected to do any real good.

The same principle applies to the attempt to get rid of skin diseases by local applications of salves, ointments, lotions, washes, etc., remedies applied to the surface of the skin, which can have no real corrective effect what ever upon the disease. Water cannot be boiled until every atom has been thoroughly saturated with intense heat, which can be accomplished only by applying it in the proper way.

So, also there is a proper way to successfully treat and get rid of diseases of the skin, and that is by getting in behind the millions of tiny germs that cause the disorders, and eliminate them from the blood, thus going direct to the source of the trouble, and attacking them at the starting point.

Those who rely upon local treatment such as ointments, salves, lotions, washes, etc., which are applied to the surface of the skin, will never be free from agonizing skin diseases, because they are going about the treatment just backwards. They are treating the results of the disorder, and not the disease itself. They are attempting to boil water by applying the heat in the wrong place.

There is a Way to Get Rid of the Torturous Suffering.

You cannot boil water by applying the heat to the top of the vessel. You may possibly, after so long a time, succeed in making the water lukewarm, but it will never get hot enough to boil.

Disorders which originate in the blood can be reached only through the blood, and no amount of local treatment applied to the surface can be expected to do any real good.

The same principle applies to the attempt to get rid of skin diseases by local applications of salves, ointments, lotions, washes, etc., remedies applied to the surface of the skin, which can have no real corrective effect what ever upon the disease. Water cannot be boiled until every atom has been thoroughly saturated with intense heat, which can be accomplished only by applying it in the proper way.

So, also there is a proper way to successfully treat and get rid of diseases of the skin, and that is by getting in behind the millions of tiny germs that cause the disorders, and eliminate them from the blood, thus going direct to the source of the trouble, and attacking them at the starting point.

Those who rely upon local treatment such as ointments, salves, lotions, washes, etc., which are applied to the surface of the skin, will never be free from agonizing skin diseases, because they are going about the treatment just backwards. They are treating the results of the disorder, and not the disease itself. They are attempting to boil water by applying the heat in the wrong place.

There is a Way to Get Rid of the Torturous Suffering.

Copyright, 1916, by George Matthew Adams—Trade Mark Registered U. S. Pat. Office.

"people" don't even know it's crown money, that must be made known officially.

"Should they exist on later they would inevitably be the best of propaganda, and the workers of the duma in the country. He was minister when you allowed it, as they came straight to you before Maklakoff could make his report, and then he begged you after only to sanction it during the war. If ever such sort of organizations are needed it must be in the hands of government. He is over 'dugested with Khvorostov's behavior.

"Tenderest kisses from all. Ever your very, very own."

(Sukhomlinov was the discharged war minister who was imprisoned and tried for corruption. Spiridovitch was the chief of the secret service. Arseniev may be general aid de camp to the emperor. E. A. Arseniev was the frequently mentioned in these letters. E. Countess Anna V. Hendrick, one of the czar's maids of honor.)

Copyright, 1916, by Chicago Daily News Company. All rights reserved in Great Britain, Scandinavia, France, Italy, Spain, South America, and all other countries. Published by special arrangement with the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

CARPETS CLEANED the best way by the best cleaners. WILSON-MILLICAN Plant 2. Phone 716—Adx.

Flower Seeds that produce the finest flowers. El Paso Seed Co., 213 East San Antonio street—Adx.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

French War Brides' Clubs Being Formed

New York, May 12.—French War Brides' clubs, organized under auspices of the Y. W. C. A. are springing up in many parts of the country, wherever a large number of French girls have settled with their A. E. F. husbands. These French wives, bewildered by American social customs, American food and American styles, are glad to meet with girls of their own tongue to talk over their problems and to return for a time, in spirit at least, to sunny France.

Reports from several of the clubs show that in the matter of styles, pointed shoes are abhorred pretty generally by these petite maidens, many of whom have sent back to France for the round-toed French shoe. "No nice French woman would wear pointed shoes," says one of the brides. American hats aren't up to their taste either but they like American silk stockings. In most of the clubs the girls, besides indulging in a "sunny France reunion" are studying English, practicing the cooking of western dishes and learning some of the occupations and forms of recreation popular with the American girls.

The three sisters of Hazel Lufberry, noted French seamstress, belong to the club in Boston, Mass.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

Copyright, 1916, by George Matthew Adams—Trade Mark Registered U. S. Pat. Office.

"people" don't even know it's crown money, that must be made known officially.

"Should they exist on later they would inevitably be the best of propaganda, and the workers of the duma in the country. He was minister when you allowed it, as they came straight to you before Maklakoff could make his report, and then he begged you after only to sanction it during the war. If ever such sort of organizations are needed it must be in the hands of government. He is over 'dugested with Khvorostov's behavior.

"Tenderest kisses from all. Ever your very, very own."

(Sukhomlinov was the discharged war minister who was imprisoned and tried for corruption. Spiridovitch was the chief of the secret service. Arseniev may be general aid de camp to the emperor. E. A. Arseniev was the frequently mentioned in these letters. E. Countess Anna V. Hendrick, one of the czar's maids of honor.)

Copyright, 1916, by Chicago Daily News Company. All rights reserved in Great Britain, Scandinavia, France, Italy, Spain, South America, and all other countries. Published by special arrangement with the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

CARPETS CLEANED the best way by the best cleaners. WILSON-MILLICAN Plant 2. Phone 716—Adx.

Flower Seeds that produce the finest flowers. El Paso Seed Co., 213 East San Antonio street—Adx.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.

STILL IN GRAVEYARD? Huston, T. Va., May 12—Gordon Kirby, of this city, is alleged to have used the graveyard on the hill back of the city as a place where he disposed of moonshine whisky. All the transactions were made at night and a tombstone was the counter. Federal agents grabbed him.